PENSACOLA | Office

Galloway, Johnson, Tompkins, Burr and Smith's Pensacola, Florida office opened in 1996 and has continued to expand. Pensacola attorneys of GJTBS practice in a wide range of legal fields, including construction defect, professional liability, employment law, maritime, commercial litigation and transactions, worker's compensation, estate planning, and insurance coverage.

Pensacola, Florida is the westernmost city in Florida and is ideally located for GJTBS attorneys to provide legal services from Jacksonville to Tallahassee to Pensacola, as well as the Gulf of Mexico resort communities of Panama City, Destin, and Fort Walton Beach. Appearing small relative to other Florida cities like Tampa and Miami, the 2000 census population of the Pensacola Urbanized Area was 321,875, the eighth-largest in Florida!

Pensacola's business climate includes major manufacturers, healthcare facilities, finance, utilities, and maritime industries. Since settlement 450 years ago by the Spanish explorer Don Tristan de Luna, Pensacola has been known for its pristine beaches that are located only minutes from the downtown business center. Our city offers a broad range of outdoor and cultural activities for its diverse population to enjoy. One visit to Pensacola and a sample of all it has to offer and you will appreciate the late Pensacola Mayor Vince Whibbs' description of Pensacola "as where thousands live like millions wish they could."
